

WHAT PARENTS SAY ABOUT PEP

"I learned a lot of great information. I feel relieved and empowered and know I am not alone."

"The 'couples must attend together' rule was puzzling to us at first. People have to work. We can't both take off three days and find a sitter! Ya! We get it now. This has started a movement in us to better our relationship like nothing ever has. Thank You So Much!"

"Life changing! I can't even express how amazing and encouraged I feel."

"I loved that it was parent focused and we were encouraged to share our feelings as well as our knowledge."

"I like that this conference is put on basically by 'lay people' with special needs kids who live this every day. Thank you!"

"I came thinking this wasn't for me and I am leaving understanding more than I could have imagined."

WHAT EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS SAY ABOUT PEP

"I felt I was able to give some school side perspective as I visited with parents. It was also great to talk to parents about the IEP."

"I was able to take my professional hat off and listen to what parents with a child with a disability go through from the day they learn about the disability."

"Very Informative, best conference I've attended since I started teaching 7 years ago."

WHAT IS PEP?

The purpose of PEP is to bring parents of children with disabilities together in an accepting and confidential environment, giving them the opportunity to share ideas, feelings and common concerns, and to obtain information on parenting and educating a child with a disability. A major objective of the weekend is to help parents realize that each is doing the best he/she can do at this time. By the end of the conference, parents will go home with renewed energy, spirit, hope and a desire to work closely with professionals who serve their child so that every child can experience the fullest life.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This conference is open to all Nebraska parents who are raising a child with a verified disability. The child with the disability must have either an active IFSP or IEP.

A small number of openings are reserved for education professionals who serve children with disabilities and are employed in NE school districts. Professionals will experience PEP from a parent perspective.

Enrollment is limited to 110 participants and registration is on a first come, first serve basis.

If you cannot attend PEP this year, please fill out the Parent Registration form (your name and address only) and check the box that states you cannot attend this year. You will then receive a brochure directly to your address for PEP 2016.

HOW DO I REGISTER?

To register, first READ the Guidelines for Participation in the PEP Conference. Then complete and return the conference registration form. PEP staff will reserve a hotel room in your name and a confirmation will be mailed or emailed to you. For further information, call Gina Roth at the Nebraska Department of Education, Special Education Office, at 402-471-2471 (Voice/TDD).
